

WELCOME!

As Visual & Performing Arts enters its 59th year of excellence, I'm happy to welcome you to another season of outstanding performances. Come and take part in our many cultural events. You'll find a wide variety of offerings for lovers of the arts - both young and old.

Here in the Visual & Performing Arts department at Broward College, we foster young performers and artists in their pursuit of personal excellence. We have seen many of our talented alumni go on to exhibit or perform in major venues nationwide. We know that today's BC student performer may become tomorrow's operatic tenor, prima ballerina, gallery artist or Broadway actor.

If you've been fortunate enough to view our students' performances in years past, you'll know that there is no better place in south Florida to experience the raw, expressive talent they provide. As you take in our 2018-19 season calendar, you'll see a lot that's new amongst old favorites. Come and experience Broward College's excellence in the arts with us! You'll be glad you did.
